

High School Survey | Social Media Options:

1. Lighthouse Christian School is exploring the possibility of launching a new high school and would like YOUR input! This survey is for all community members - not just those with school-aged children. Education is a deeply personal choice, and we respect the variety of perspectives within our community. Thank you for your participation!
2. Does Gig Harbor need another option for high school? Lighthouse Christian School is exploring the possibility of launching a new future high school campus, and we want YOUR input! Share what's important to you through this market assessment survey. Open now through April 20th!
3. Lighthouse Christian School is exploring the potential to develop a future campus to facilitate a high school in the Gig Harbor area. Your feedback and input into creating the vision is important and valued. Please consider completing this market assessment survey to share your feedback. Survey open through April 20th.
4. What could a new private Christian high school in Gig Harbor offer? How can it best serve students? What do you believe would make it a place where young people can thrive in their faith and learning? Lighthouse Christian School is exploring the possibility of launching a new high school and would like YOUR input! Please consider completing this market assessment survey to share your feedback. Survey open through April 20th.